

The Mercies of God:

- God credits us righteousness apart from works (3:22; 4:6)
- God offers us justification and redemption (3:24)
- Jesus' sacrifice provides atonement (3:25)
- God takes judgment on himself (3:25; 4:25)
- God is forbearing and patience with us (3:25)
- Our transgressions are forgiven and sins covered (4:7)
- Our sins are not counted against us (4:8)
- God gives spiritual life to the spiritually dead (4:17)
- God makes peace between us and him (5:1)
- God poured his love into our hearts (5:5)
- He has given us the Holy Spirit (5:5)
- God demonstrated his love for us while we were still in open rebellion against him (5:8)
- He saved us from his wrath (5:9)
- He reconciled us to himself (5:11)
- He gives us eternal life (5:21; 6:23; 8:11)
- He provides an overflowing and abundant provision of grace (5:15,17)
- God has allowed us to die to sin (6:2)
- God gives us new life (6:4)
- He allows us to bear fruit (7:4)
- He frees us from condemnation (8:1)
- He makes us his children, heirs of God, co-heirs with Christ (8:17-17)
- God shares his glory with us (8:17)
- The Holy Spirit intercedes for us (8:26-27)
- God works for our good (8:28)
- He conforms us to his likeness (8:29)
- He is for us (8:31)
- God doesn't bring charges against us (8:33)
- God provides his love from which we can never be separated (8:35-39)
- God saves all who call on him (10:13)
- He allows those who do not seek him to find him (10:20)
- He offers us his kindness (11:22)
- God gives us irrevocable calls and gifts (11:29)¹

¹ <https://spiritualrunning.wordpress.com/2009/10/05/examples-of-god's-mercy-in-romans-1-11/>